

The Next New Normal: Tools to Help Your Business Thrive in International Markets

Green Energy Perspectives & International Opportunities

Tuesday, March 28

Facilitators:

Roger H. Bora, Partner, International Trademark, Brand & Intellectual Property Attorney, Thompson Hine LLP & Former U.S. Department of Commerce & U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Attorney

Deborah Dirr, Senior International Trade Specialist, U.S. Department of Commerce, U.S. Commercial Service

11:45 - 11:50 a.m.

Roger H. Bora, Partner, International Trademark, Brand & Intellectual Property Attorney, Thompson Hine LLP & Former U.S. Department of Commerce & U.S. Patent and Trademark Office Attorney - Welcome & Introduction; CLE Information

11:50 a.m. – 12:15 p.m.

Kevin R. Tabor, Partner, Tax and Energy, Thompson Hine LLP - Impact of Inflation Reduction Act on Renewable Energy Transactions

- Common legal entity structures used for renewable energy transactions
 - Investment tax credits for energy storage technology (batteries)
 - Domestic content, prevailing wage, and apprenticeship requirements
 - Transferring investment tax credits
-

12:15 – 12:35 p.m.

Marcelo Orellana, Mining & Energy Advisor at U.S. Embassy, Santiago, Chile Commercial Specialist, U.S. Commercial Service, U.S. Department of Commerce - Clean/Renewable Opportunities in Chile

- Chile's renewable energy strategy creating an important market for U.S. exporters
 - Chile's 2030 renewable grid and 2050 zero emissions goals
-

12:35 – 1:00 p.m.

Gregory D. Chafee, Partner, Corporate Transactions & Securities, Thompson Hine LLP - Powering Up: New Incentives Energizing Sustainable Investment

- How Businesses are Capitalizing on Green Financing to Minimize Carbon Footprints
- Unlocking Value in Energy Assets
- Trends and Developments: What's Next?

CLE credit is pending.

To register, click here.
