

Kevin R. Tabor – Thompson Hine LLP

Partner

Kevin.Tabor@ThompsonHine.com

Cleveland

O 216.566.5848

M 216.317.7134

Kevin is a partner in Thompson Hine's Tax group. He focuses his practice on federal income tax law and Ohio tax law, including both transactional and tax controversy matters.

As part of his transactional practice, Kevin frequently advises clients on all aspects of corporate and partnership taxation, with particular experience in cross-border tax matters. As part of his tax controversy practice, he often represents clients before the IRS and the Ohio Department of Taxation in audits, administrative appeals, litigation, and criminal tax investigations. Kevin is also a member of the firm's Energy group, advising clients on renewable energy transactions, including matters related to the Section 48 energy investment tax credit (ITC), equipment leasing, and the economic substance doctrine. He is also a certified public accountant in Ohio.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- The Ohio State University Michael E. Moritz College of Law, J.D., 2011, Entrepreneurial Business Law Journal
- The Ohio State University, B.S.B.A., 2008, magna cum laude, honors in accounting
- The Ohio State University, M.S., 2008

Bar Admissions

- Ohio

Marcelo Orellana – U.S. Commercial Service

Commercial Specialist | U.S. Embassy,
Santiago, Chile

Marcelo.Orellana@trade.gov

Commercial Specialist, U.S. Commercial Service, U.S. Department of Commerce, U.S. Embassy Santiago, Chile. Marcelo Orellana has over 20 years of experience helping U.S. companies enter the Chilean market. His industry portfolio includes the mining and energy sectors, among others. Before coming to Commerce, Marcelo also worked in private industry in the U.S. and Chile.

Gregory D. Chafee – Thompson Hine LLP

Partner

Greg.Chafee@ThompsonHine.com

Atlanta

O 404.407.3642

M 770.330.7636

Greg is a partner in the Corporate Transactions & Securities Practice and the Energy Group. He is also Co-Chair of the Water Resources, Technology & Regulation Group. Greg's practice covers a wide range of domestic and international corporate, commercial, transactional, regulatory compliance and governance matters, with a focus on energy project development, clean technology, and environmental, social and governance (ESG) and sustainability programs, policies and initiatives.

Greg represents public and private companies in purchase and sale transactions, raising funds through equity and debt financing, and structuring business relationships including partnerships, joint ventures and strategic alliances. His practice involves corporate finance and capital formation, technology licensing and transfer, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures and representing owners, investors, entrepreneurs and established and early-stage companies.

CREDENTIALS

Education

- Boston University School of Law, J.D.
- Brown University, B.A., magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa

Bar Admissions

- Connecticut
- District of Columbia
- Georgia
- Pennsylvania